CRICOS COURSE CODE: 117019F

Campus
Melbourne, Adelaide

Duration
Full time on campus - 36 Weeks

Attendance
20 Hours face-to-face per week

Overview

The EAP course consists of 3 levels; EAP1, EAP2, EAP3 and each level is 10 weeks in duration. It focuses on a range of academic skills, with the goal of preparing students to successfully perform in a number of academic and professional English language contexts. During the course, you will be engaged with different, exciting topics and practise speaking and giving presentations, listening and following lectures, reading academic and formal texts, writing essays and research reports, grammar and a range of relevant and useful vocabulary.

EAP 1: At this level, the learner holds a good understanding of key and general academic conventions with basic strategies in place within academic contexts. They can put together and present short presentations. The learner is able to handle unpredictable, irregular situations at a basic level and generally understands the main points in most lectures and presentations. Although still developing, pronunciation is usually clearly intelligible for most learners. They can show good skimming and scanning skills and usually interpret the main points in academic as well as formal mainstream texts, such as forms and contracts. The learner is able to produce simple essays and research reports.

EAP 2: At this level, the learner demonstrates very good knowledge of academic conventions by relying on the effective strategies they have developed for a variety of formal language contexts. They can put together and give talks and presentations to some depth. The learner is able to handle high level and unpredictable, out-of-the-ordinary situations and comprehensively understand most points in a lecture or presentation. Most learners at this level present pronunciation which is highly intelligible albeit potentially irregular. They can employ skimming and scanning skills and interpret many academic and formal mainstream texts quite well. The learner has the ability to produce detailed essays and research reports with appropriate structure, organisation and topic-specific vocabulary.

EAP 3: At this level, the learner has developed extensive strategies for a variety of academic contexts based on a robust understanding of academic conventions. They can put together and give detailed talks and presentations on a range of academic subjects at relative ease. The learner is able to handle very high level and unpredictable, irregular situations and can comprehensively understand all points presented in lectures or presentations as well as common formal language. Though an accent may persist, the learner's pronunciation is consistently highly intelligible. They show strong skimming and scanning reading skills and control strategies to interpret subtle implied meaning across varying text types. The learner is able to structure essays and research reports appropriately and express complex ideas that follow academic structure conventions.

Introduction to Australia

Geography

Australia is both an island and a continent. It is the largest island but the smallest continent in the world. It is about thirty seven hundred kilometres from north to south and four thousand kilometres from east to west. It has an area of nearly 7.7 million square kilometres and is the sixth largest nation on earth. It is the lowest of all the continents with the highest point at only 2228 metres. The variety of landscapes more than compensate for the lack of height. Climatic zones range from tropical rainforests, to deserts and cool temperate forests to snow covered mountains.

Language

In Australia over 200 different languages and dialects are spoken including 45 indigenous languages. The most commonly spoken languages (other than English) are Italian, Greek, Cantonese, Arabic, Vietnamese, Hindi and Mandarin.

Appliances

Appliances in Australia use 200 volts and 60 Hz. You can buy adapters to fit the Australian power points for your existing electronic items. (find a picture of the Australian power plug).

Currency

Be sure to have cash for essential items when you arrive in Australia, it is recommended to bring about A$500 cash.

Australian currency is the Australian Dollar (AUD)

Australian coins are available in the following denominations:

- $0.05 = 5 cents
- $0.10 = 10 cents
- $0.20 = 20 cents
- $0.50 = 50 cents
- $1.00 = 1 dollar
- $2.00 = 2 dollars

Australian bank notes are available in the following denominations:

- $5.00 = 5 dollars
- $10.00 = 10 dollars
- $20.00 = 20 dollars
- $50.00 = 50 dollars
- $100.00 = 100 dollars

Most ATMs (cash machines) dispense twenty and fifty dollar notes. Some shops and other outlets will not accept $100 notes, so it is best to carry smaller notes. Debit and credit cards are widely accepted. Check with your bank at home to see if you will be charged a fee to use your debit and/or credit card in Australia. Please refrain from carrying large sums of cash on your person for safety reasons. Australia is English.

Introduction to Melbourne

Melbourne

Melbourne is Australia's second largest capital city and home to some of Australia's best cafes and restaurants. Melbourne has great events and has a passion for food and wine. Melbourne is located on Port Phillip Bay in Australia's south east and has a population of 3,995,500. There are some 3500 restaurant and cafes in Melbourne.

Public Transport

Melbourne's public transport is the easiest and best way to get around the city. Its network extends from the city centre in all directions, with trains, trams and buses offering comprehensive public transport services. Information on destinations and schedules can be obtained from the information desks within the airport or from ptv.vic.gov.au

Melbourne (CBD)

One glance at a map and it is obvious that Melbourne is a planned city: a tidy, balanced grid of neatly angled streets. But beneath this sense of everything in its place restraint lies a restless and creative energy pushing back at the city's seeming conservatism. The Central Business District (CBD) is made up of precincts - distinct enclaves, each with its own flavour and charm. Some are just a lane or two, while others cover the banks of the Yarra River or a busy CBD street.

Taxi Fares and Surcharges

Taxi meters are usually clearly visible so you can keep check of your fare. Late night taxi trips must be paid for in advance. Between 10pm and 5am in Victoria, the driver will ask you for an up-front deposit, based on a table of point to point estimates. You can use the fare estimator to work out what your up-front costs are likely to be. Melbourne cabs attract additional charges like a late night surcharge from midnight to 5am, a fee for phone bookings, a fee for using the Citylink freeway and even a fee for taxis waiting at the airport rank. Visas & Migration

Most international students wanting to study in Australia require a student visa. Some other visa holders are also eligible to study in Australia. Many students apply for a visa themselves on-line or via the Australian Diplomatic Mission in their country. The visa application process can be complicated for students from some countries. It may be better to submit an application with the assistance of an accredited agent. You should check with the education provider in Australia for their accredited agents in your country. In order to apply for a visa you will need a valid passport, an electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCoE) and any other documentation required by the Australian diplomatic post with which you lodge your application. For example, if you are under 18 you must have a completed CAAW form to ensure your accommodation and welfare is approved of by your education provider. You must ensure to allow enough time for processing between lodging your application and the start of your academic program, as it can be a lengthy process depending on your country of origin. Visit the link below to find out about Student visa Assessment Levels. <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/>

Department of Home Affairs

Department of Home Affairs provides comprehensive information about student visa requirements and the application process, as well as application document checklists to assist you with your application. Visit: <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/>

English Proficiency Requirement

To be accepted to study on a student visa in Australia you will need to demonstrate a sufficient level of English language proficiency, and meet minimum academic requirements.

School-age dependents

Students intending to study at Southern Cross Education Institute who have school aged dependents may have a legal requirement for those dependents to study at primary or secondary schools within Australia. Costs may be incurred for this schooling. Refer to the Department of Home Affairs, for more information <https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/>.

Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT)

- The Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) promotes and protects Australia's international interests to support our security and prosperity.
- We work with international partners and other countries to tackle global challenges, increase trade and investment opportunities, protect international rules, keep our region stable and help Australians overseas.

Migration Agents

A migration agent can assist you in submitting your visa application and communicate with DHA on your behalf, but please note that you do not need to use a migration agent to lodge any type of visa application.

Education Agents

Education agents promote various Australian education programs and institutions internationally and are a good way for students to apply to study in Australia. Agents are experienced in filling in international student applications and applying for visas. Most speak both English and the local language which makes the application process a lot simpler and generally hassle free for students and parents. Most do not charge for their service as they collect a commission from the institution you choose to attend. However, some agents do charge small amounts or offer additional services. You can check with your Australian education provider for contact details of agents they recommend.

Please Note:

Education Agents although able to assist in completing education and visa applications, are NOT licensed to provide migration advice.

If you are granted a visa, you must abide by its conditions. Failure to comply with these conditions could result in the cancellation of your visa. Please see the table of Student VISA conditions below.

ESOS (Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000)

The Australian Government wants overseas students in Australia to have a safe, enjoyable and rewarding place to study. Australia's laws promotes quality education and consumer protection for overseas students. These laws are known as the ESOS framework and they include the Education Services for Overseas (ESOS) Act 2000 and the National Code 2018.

Protection for overseas students

As an overseas student on a student visa, you must study with an education provider and in a course that can be found on the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS). CRICOS registration guarantees that the course and the education provider you study with meets the high standards necessary for overseas students. Please check carefully that the details of your course – including its location – match the information on CRICOS.

Your rights: The ESOS framework protects your rights, including:

The right to receive before enrolling current and accurate information about the courses, fees, modes of study and other information from your provider and your provider's agent. If you are under 18 to ensure your safety, you will be granted visas only if there are arrangements in place for your accommodation, support and welfare.

- Your right to sign a written agreement with your provider before or as you pay fees setting out the services to be provided, fees payable and information about course refunds. You should keep a copy of your written agreement.
- The ESOS framework sets out the standards that Australian education providers who offer education services to overseas students, must obey. These standards cover a range of information that students have a right to know about services that must be offered, include:
 - Orientation and access to support services to help you study and adjust to life in Australia
 - Who the contact officer or officers are for overseas students
 - If you can apply for course credit
 - When your enrolment can be deferred, suspended or cancelled
 - What your provider's requirements are for satisfactory progress in the courses you study and what support is available if you are not progressing well.
 - If attendance will be monitored for your course
 - A complaints and appeals process.

One of the standards restricts providers from enrolling transferring students prior to the student completing six months of his or her principal course of study.

Your right to get the education you paid for

The Tuition Protection Service (TPS) is an initiative of the Australian Government to assist international students whose education providers are unable to fully deliver their course of study. The TPS ensures that international students are able to either:

- Complete their studies in another course or with another education provider or
- Receive a refund of their unspent tuition fees.

In the unlikely event your education provider is unable to deliver a course you have paid for and does not meet their obligations to either offer you an alternative course that you accept or pay you a refund of your unspent prepaid tuition fees (this is called a provider's 'default obligations'), the TPS will assist you to find an alternative course or to get a refund if a suitable alternative is not found.

The reforms aim to protect the considerable investment international students make in an Australian education, and to protect and enhance Australia's global reputation.

Some of the key features are:

- A new national TPS which will replace a range of existing tuition assurance arrangements.
- A limit of up to 50 per cent of total tuition fees may be collected prior to student commencement (unless the course is 24 weeks or less).
- Specified providers are required to keep initial prepaid fees in a separate account until a student commences study.
- Student refunds will be based on unexpended tuition fees (rather than on total course cost as previously).

Your responsibilities

As an overseas student on a student visa, you have responsibilities to:

- Satisfy your student visa conditions
- Maintain your Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for the period of your stay
- Meet the terms of the written agreement with your education provider
- Inform your provider if you change your address
- Maintain satisfactory course progress
- If attendance is recorded for your course, follow your provider's attendance policy, and
- If you are under 18, maintain your approved accommodation, support and general welfare arrangements.

Before Arriving

All new international students are strongly advised to arrive at least four days before Orientation Day (check your welcome letter for details). This gives you time to recover from your long flight, settle into your accommodation, become familiar with the campus and Australia itself. Arriving late only causes stress and disorganisation, and can significantly impact on your chances of success.

Checklist before you leave home

- Apply for your international student visa
- Check your passport is valid for the intended length of your study period in Australia
- Leave a copy of your passport, visa and other ID with parents/relatives or friends
- Organise to have a full medical check-up and organise any prescribed medications or immunisations you may need
- Ask your doctor to write a letter (in English) to explain any medications
- Book your flights
- Purchase travel insurance
- Arrange your student accommodation (may be temporary) before you leave your home country
- Organise to have at least A$500 available to you on arrival in Australia
- Make a note of the contact details of your country's embassy in Australia
- Pack a document folder containing your offer letter, Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE), certified copies of existing academic transcripts and education history documents, copy of your IELTS or other English language test results, receipts of payment for tuition fee and Overseas Student Health Cover, identification documents, important contact numbers, details of pre-arranged accommodation and transport and important medical records
- Note the dates for your Orientation program

For further information www.agriculture.gov.au/travelling/faqs

On Arrival

On Arrival Customs and quarantine Before landing in Australia, passengers are given an Incoming Passenger Card to complete. If you have items you don't wish to declare, you can dispose of them in quarantine bins in the airport terminal.

Vocational Training & Assessment

Standards for Registered Training Organisations (2025)

The Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) is the national regulator for Australia's vocational education and training sector. ASQA regulates courses and training providers to ensure nationally approved quality standards are met.

ASQA regulates providers according to the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (2025) and CRICOS Standards.

Southern Cross Education Institute is a Registered Training Provider (RTO) that meets national educational standards. SCEI is fully compliant with the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (2025).

For further information regarding the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (2025), visit www.asqa.gov.au

Competency Based Training

Competency based training and completion is an approach to vocational education and training that places emphasis on what a person can do in the workplace as a result of completing a program of training.

Competency based training programs are comprised of competency standards set by industry that each student is assessed against to ensure all the outcomes required have been achieved.

Progression through a competency based training program is determined by the student demonstrating that they have met the competency standards through the training program and related work.

Assessments

SCEI is committed to an assessment system that ensures that assessment both complies with the assessment requirements of the training package and is conducted in accordance with the Principles of Assessment and the Rules of Evidence.

You will be assessed throughout the course in a variety of ways:

- Formative assessment occurs throughout the course in the form of skill demonstration, group work, quizzes, discussions, role plays and scenarios. Formative assessment provides an indication of learning and consolidation and determines the student's readiness for summative assessment.
- Summative assessment involves the collection of a range of evidence to determine the student's demonstration of the required skills and knowledge of the unit. The combination of formative and summative assessments ensures the student demonstrates consistency of required skills and knowledge associated with the units of competency.

Each individual assessment task is graded as either satisfactory or unsatisfactory. Once all assessment tasks for a unit of competency have been graded (including professional practice experience, work placement) as satisfactory an outcome of competent will be granted. You are required to achieve a competent outcome in all units of competency to be awarded the qualification.

The scheduling of summative assessments is stated in the Unit Delivery and Assessment Plan for each unit of competency. The trainer and assessor will discuss unit assessments with you on commencement of the unit and inform you of the due dates for each task. You are required to note the due dates in the space provided in the student assessment document. Both the Unit Delivery and Assessment Plan and the Student Assessment documents are located on Moodle.

Frequently Asked Questions

1

Which side of the road do Australians drive on?

Australians drive on the left-hand side on the road, and this convention carries over to other parts of our streets as well.

When stopping on an escalator, or walking up stairs, always stick to the left and don't block other people from passing you by resting your hand on the right-side railing. Equally, when walking on the sidewalk, try to stick to the left where possible.

Pay special attention when walking on bike-paths where it's not just a matter of politeness but also a matter of safety to stick to the left side. Don't cross the street, unless the man is green. You can be booked (fined) if you don't.

Is it expected to tip for services?

Tipping wait staff, hotel staff, and cab drivers is not necessary in Australia as it is in the USA and some other places. It is slightly more common to tip in upscale restaurants, but you always have the option of tipping and won't be frowned upon if you don't.

3

What are the social customs in Australia that I should know about?

Meeting Etiquette - Australians are not very formal so greetings are casual and relaxed. A handshake and smile suffices. Greetings such as 'Good morning/afternoon', 'Hello', 'G'day' and 'How are you?' are commonly used even among strangers.

If you are trying to get someones attention, or interpreting a conversation it is excepted that you say 'excuse me'. Also the use of 'please' is quite common when requesting something; and 'thank you' when something is done or handed to you.

Dinning etiquette.

Table manners are Continental, hold the fork in the left hand and the knife in the right while eating. Indicate you have finished eating by laying your knife and fork parallel on your plate with the handles facing to the right. Keep your elbows off the table and your hands above the table when eating. During a meal chewing is widely expected to be performed with the lips absolutely shut. Then there is the etiquette of talking at dinner parties – in polite company ev-everybody should be prepared to talk during dinner. In such settings it is rude to eat and not talk, unless the meal is a very intimate one where the rule is ignored or dropped. Once you have finished your meal it is expected to say " excuse me" if you would like to leave the table.

5

How do I address people?

Most Australian have two names:

First name: Sam

Surname or Family name : Smith.

In an informal situation (e.g. friends) you would use the persons first name e.g."Hi Sam".

In a formal situation you would address a reason using their surname e.g.: "Mr. Smith, I'd like to introduce you to Mr. Robertson".

Your naming system may differ from this; however, for the sake of clarity it is important that on official documents you always use the same names in the same order. It is a good idea to underline your family name, e.g. Wong Fei Wan. If you are wondering what to call someone, simply ask:

'What would you like me to call you?'

When you first meet someone it is also appropriate to tell them the name that you prefer to be called. For example 'Please call me Fei Wan.'

Frequently Asked Questions

6

Is there a specific dress code that I should be made aware of?

During attendance at campus people tend to dress casually. IF your course requires you to complete work placement then you will be expected to wear black pants and a SHEI T-shirt as your uniform.

7

Do I need to have sun protection all the time?

The sun can be harsh in Australia, and the Cancer Council Australia and SunSmart has an ongoing campaign to keep people protected. Slip on a shirt, Slop on the 30+ sunscreen, Slap on a hat, Seek shade or shelter, Slide on some sunnies (sunglasses). — “Slip, Slop, Slap, Seek, Slide”

8

Where can I smoke?

There are so many rules and regulations regarding smoking. You cannot smoke with 3 metres of entrances or exits of any cafe or restaurant. You cannot smoke in your own car if you have children in it. Quite a few beaches are smoke-free as are some entire suburbs. There are even regulations on plain cigarette packaging to deter smokers, and graphically horrendous images on cigarette packs to encourage people to quit. If you are a smoker insure that you do not throw a cigarette butt out of a car window, or anywhere actually. Many of Australia's bushfire are caused by this.

Safety at the beach

Australia has a lot of beautiful beaches but to insure your safety it is highly recommender to swim between the flags at patrolled beaches. This means when you see the red and yellow flags, you must swim here because the lifeguards have ascertained that this is the safest area on that day, at that beach. You will see that the flags change position on the beaches not just daily but throughout the day, as Australia has some of the most unpredictable rips. A rip is a current that likes to take you to places that you might not want to go to. They can take you a long way away pretty quickly, and you could find yourself in dangerous territory.
